STUDENTS can nominate their favourite English-language teachers for the Inspiring Teacher of English Award, from now to March 24.

The award will recognise up to 10 teachers who have ignited a love for the English language in students, and helped them speak and write effectively.

It is given by The Straits Times and Speak Good English Movement, and supported by the Education Ministry.

The winners will be unveiled in October. Each will receive a cash prize and a trophy.

Nomination forms can be downloaded via The Straits Times Interactive website at www.straitstimes.com, or The Inspiring Teacher of English Award website at www.inspiringenglishteacher.sg
